

This is the fourth announcement of Brazil Delta '17

The Eleventh Southern Hemisphere Conference on the Teaching and Learning of Undergraduate Mathematics and Statistics

The conference will be held 26 November - 1 December 2017, in Gramado, Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil. The venue is the Support Foundation of the Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul – FAURGS, and the conference, the eleventh of its name, promises to be as good as its predecessors. Our theme of no doubt will inspire much interesting discussion of the great challenges facing mathematics and statistics educators.

We are delighted to announce that Dr. Greg Oates of the University of Tasmania, Australia, has accepted our invitation to be a keynote speaker. The full programme with details about all the keynote speakers can be found on <https://www.univates.br/evento/deltabrasil/en/program>.

Since the period of the event is high season in the city of Gramado and the demand for hotels is high, we highly recommend you book your accommodation as soon as possible. We have a partnership with a travel agency for special prices. Make your reservation through here: <http://bit.ly/2v8dH4v>

Please be aware of the following important dates:

20 November 2017: Final date for registration.

Please visit our website <https://www.univates.br/delta> for further details.
